Test case

Testing of registration procedures on ryanair.com

Steps	Expected result	Actual result
Press "Sign up" button on top left corner	pop-up window offers to continue to sign up process	same
Sign up with email, enter a valid email	after filling valid email there should appear green check mark "approved"	same
Enter a correct password for registration in accordance with specified rules (size, presence of symbols etc)	after filling appropriate password there should appear green check mark "approved" and "password strength" from the left side should show level of security	same press "sign up" button	Should appear pop-up window "verify your account"	same
You should receive an activation code on the previously entered email.	Code received and copied	same
Enter the code into verification field	Field accepted the code and allows to verify it	same
Press "verify" button	pop-up window missing and you can see your name on the top-right corner	same

Step 2.
Ryanair allows you to add your information and documents for reducing the time of filling info while purchasing the tickets.

Adding personal info for the further use

Steps	Expected result	Actual result
Press your email name on top-left corner	There should appear the list with options "myRyanair" and log out	same
Choose "myRyanair"	The page redirects on personal info block into personal page	same
Add in correct form: -your full name (obligatorily) -date of birth Press the "save" button after adding data.	While entering correct data, a green check mark should appear. If testing the system for accepting non-real data (for example date of birth 31/02/1990) the should be red mark and corresponding note explaining what is wrong Or test phone numbers corresponding to number' large and code.	Green mark for all added valid values email and password added previously could be changed		Red mark for all wrong meaning add valid phone number		all fields with * should be filled.
Press "travel documents" in the list from the left Note: this page is available only after filling of personal info data.	The open page allows you to enter your documents data.	same
Add info to every field on the page. The page "document type" depends on the "nationality" page.	The system does not allow you to move without filling the Nationality page first. After entering the info, system does not mark red any forms	same
Press "save" button	The page "travel documents" shows your saving data and covers passport number with .	same